HANS BRUMANN CUP

GAME 4 – Manila Southwoods Legends Course

Well, we are finally back to normal Tournament Conditions! And what a way to resume activities with our most Generous Sponsors Brumanns leading the way to Sponsored Games. March has always been “Brumann Event”. The first time a Tournament was allowed after the long 2-year restrictions, our ever so generous Brumann Couple have come forth and decided to continue the tradition. Maria – Hans, The GCGC committee along with all the members cannot “Thank You” enough for your generosity and friendship.

THANK YOU / THANK YOU / THANK YOU

We met at the recent home of Brumann Cup games in the last few years, Manila Southwoods Legends Course for the 4th Game last Tuesday 22nd March. The original response from the members and usual Guests was immense where we had to go back to club asking for more spots as we reached the Maximum 48 within 3 days of announcement. This was not surprising as Brumann Cup has always been one of the most popular events in our calendar.

Unfortunately, as the actual day came nearer some of our friends had to cancel their bookings as having the event on a Tuesday forced some members to attend to work. We missed you all and hope to see you in next month's events. Usually, Southwoods Legends record many low scores and there has been cases where a score of 40 - 41 SFP would come 8th or 9th place. However, this year the course must have played hard with only three Members playing below their handicap. That said, the day belonged to Ruby Lepoutre playing with 48 Points! This is 12shots better than her handicap 😊 When I asked her how she did this amazing feat, her answer was "well this was one of those days where everything fit in and fell". Well, we are very happy for you Ruby and congratulate you on your "first ever" Tournament Win. Look for some of the celebration photos of Ruby's happiness.

She won the title from Gerhard Zimmer, who must have thought he definitely had a winning score as he shot 45 amazing points and came in 2nd as well as having his handicap reduced by 9! Sorry Gerhard/ Better luck next time.

3rd Place was won by the returning Dane, Bent Mortensen with 327 points. We had not seen Bent for a long time during COVID and ensuing months as he decided to be on the safe side and follow regulations all the way. Great to see you back with us Bent and WELCOME BACK. Hope to see more of you. Well played All Winners.

Guest division was won by Brendan Murphy on Count Back from Max Kailey. They both scored a Nett 71 with 1 Birdy each. Next count on CB is the Pars. Brendan had 8 Pars to Max's 7. Well played Brendan. We look forward to seeing you more.

Low Gross among members had some controversy due to score keepers mistake. Both Tchangiz and Gerald had scored Gross 83 and both had 42 in front and 41 on back. In my haste in trying to get the results as quickly as possible I made a mistake on the scores of ehole by hole. After both bogeying 18th Gerald parred the 17th to Tchangis' Bogey so on CB Gerald Won the Low Gross all be it I had announced Tchangiz on the day.

I apologize for the mistake and thank Tchangiz for his understanding and accepting the mistake.
